WANT NOTLEY TO RUN FOR MAYOR

Peculiar Plan Proposed To Beat Achi's Forces

Charles K. Notley, president of the Home Rule party, is the latest candidate for Mayor of Honolulu on the Republican ticket. This is wha the Hawaiian Republicans are talk ing about, and some of them think It is possible that he may be elected provided he consents to accept the nomination. It was reported some time ago that Notley would soon re sign as president of the Home Rule party, but when interviewed about he simply said: "I don't know." Some Hawaiians say that the put ting up of Notley as a candidate fo Mayor is done to attract Hawaiian voters and to prevent them from be ing trapped by the Labor party whose influence is being felt. There have been many names mentioned a possible candidates for the Mayor alty on the Republican ticket Among the names mentioned have been those of Jack Lucas, Charles Hustace, Senator Isenberg, Jaci Dowsett, John Lane, Judge Cooper and Judge Perry, but none of these is universally pleasing to the Ha

"If we don't put up a good mar for Mayor on the Republican ticke we cannot whip the Labor party. said a Republican yesterday. "The deeper and closer we get in touch with the Hawailan voters, the more we find the need of a man who wan get votes, especially those of the mawallans."

waffan electorate.

(Special to The Bulletin) WAILUKU, Mauf. April 21.—The vireless news from Honofulu last Tuesday afternoon that the Supreme Court of Hawaii had decided that the act regarding the issue of bonds by Maul County is void, was received with regret by some and with joy by others. It was received with regret by some because the services given by the County Civil Engineer, Hugh Howell, to laying out the prohave been brought to naught. The County Supervisors have also worked hard to pass the measure in the last FORT AND MERCHANT STS. Legislature over Governor Carter's veto. Both County Attorney D. H. Case and Attorney J. L. Coke did their share.

The Weskly Edition of the Evening Rulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.
